COLLEGE SHOWS WORK OF ARTIST

Holy Names college is sponsoring an exhibition of the work of Maureen Bogle, young Northwest artist, in the college studios each day from 1 to 5 p. m. through September 12.

At 3 Sunday afternoon Miss Bogle will present a special informal gallery discussion.

Miss Bogle has exhibited at the Art Institute of Chicago, from which she received her master's degree in June. She has also displayed her works at the Three Arts club in Chicago.

The young artist had as her first instructor Sister M. Editira, who is now head of the art department at Holy Names college, and this fall Miss Bogle will be assistant instructor in the college art department.

In addition to her teaching at the college, she will hold evening sessions for adults, a Saturday junior school for children and precollege classes for high school students.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Bogle of Grangeville,
