

St. Francis of Assisi's Church

RECEIVING THE final touches of the builders is the new St. Francis of Assisi church, N. 4420 Jefferson street, Spokane. Bishop Charles D. White will bless the new structure on Wednesday, July 4. Built at a cost of $203,613 by Henry George & Sons, contractors, the church is Romanesque style with Davenport purple brick. It was designed by Carroll Martell and associate architect, Nicholas A. Kabush.